

Town of Haven
Sherburne County, Minnesota
Ordinance No. 96-200
Ordinance Limiting the Townships Liability for Damage to Private Property during Snow Removal

Whereas the Township of Haven is required to maintain all Township roads established and located in Haven Township and

Whereas the removal of snow is considered to be road maintenance and

Whereas various sorts of accidental and non-malicious damage might occur to private property during snow removal;

Be it therefore resolved;

That any damage sustained to mailboxes, fences and other private property on town roads or in the public right-of-way during snow removal is the responsibility of the property owner. Haven Township, its agents and contractors are hereby relinquished of all liability and are not responsible for any direct or indirect loss or damage to private property on town roads or in the public right-of-way during snow removal.
