WHEREAS, the aforementioned Hazardous Building Statute is, by its express terms, limited to application by the "governing body of any city or town;" and

WHEREAS, The County of Sherburne is a political subdivision of the State of Minnesota which, in 1971, enacted the Sherburne County Zoning Ordinance (as amended) which provides comprehensive land use regulations for all unincorporated areas of Sherburne County; and

WHEREAS, Sherburne County, through the Sherburne County Zoning Office, the Sherburne County Building Official, and the Sherburne County Attorney's Office, possesses the resources to effectuate land use compliance throughout Sherburne County; and

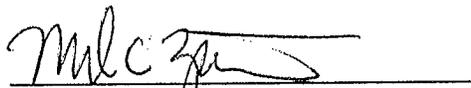

WHEREAS, the Township of Haven lacks adequate resources to ensure compliance with all applicable land use regulations, including the Hazardous Buildings Statute, or compel criminal or civil process to enforce compliance; and

WHEREAS, the Township of Haven believes it would be in the best interests of the citizens of Haven Township if Sherburne County was granted authority to proceed, on behalf of and in the stead of the Township, against the owners and/or occupiers of hazardous buildings or hazardous properties under the Hazardous Buildings Statute;
